TEACHING METHODOLOGY8.1 Tutoring

- Each student will be assigned a tutor, who will be responsible for the supervision and direction of the written work throughout the process.
- At the beginning of the course, will be provided through the Virtual Classroom, the list of students and tutors.
- The schedule of meetings will be agreed between teacher and student.
- The tutor can organize groupal tutorials or groupal sessions with their students, so that they can make a previous exposure of their work to their mates, as a test.
- Strict compliance is required by the student of all the tutorials to be quoted.
- The student needs a favorable report from his tutor to present the work.

8.2 Kind of work

The work will consist in the preparation, presentation and defense before a tribunal, a final project consisting of an integration exercise received training content and skills acquired.

The work should be structured according to the scientific method and can rotate around one of the following options:

- case / s clinical / s in hospital
- case / s clinical / s in the extracellular medium hospital
- study of performances in primary health care
- study of community care activities
- review of the literature on a topic with the aim of determining the "state of the art" of the issue.

This review will aim to identify the available empirical evidence on this issue to justify the practice.

8.3 Subject of work

The theme of the work will be agreed between student and tutor. In any case, the tutor may impose an issue with which the student is not satisfied.

8.4 Delivery of the work

The student must submit the work through the Virtual Classroom, within the deadline. At the same time, he must present (in paper), the favorable report from his tutor, to the Secretary of the Department.

The format of the written work (font, spacing, margins, etc..) Will be published in the Virtual Classroom.

There are two calls for the presentation and defense work. The exact dates, as well as classroom time and exposure, will be published early enough in the Virtual Classroom.

8.5 Presentation and defense of work

The student must present the work and then defend it before the members of a Tribunal.

The exhibition will be oral and will be accompanied by multimedia support (Power Point,).

The criteria for the assessment of oral exposure will be published in the Virtual Classroom.

EVALUATION

9.1 Report favorable

Is an essential requirement to obtain a favorable report from tutor to present the work.

9.2 Evaluation Criteria

The criteria for evaluation of written work and for oral exposure assessment, will be published at beginning of the course in the Virtual Classroom.

9.3 Evaluation

Written work will be evaluated by the tutor from 0 to 10 and will account for 70% of the final grade for the subject.

The exposition and defense of the work front the tribunal will be evaluated from 0 to 10 and will account for the remaining 30% .

Is necessary to get 5/10 or 3,5/7 in the written work to get the favorable report from the tutor.

1. Contents

The contents initially included in the teaching guide are maintained.

2. Workload and temporary teaching planning

The proportion of the different activities that add up to the hours of dedication in ECTS credits marked in the original teaching guide has been maintained.

3. Teaching methodology

Depending on the needs, teaching will be adapted to the blended or non-classroom mode, through the implementation of the corresponding teaching strategies (i.e. hybrid teaching, videoconference sessions, voice-over presentations, videos or additional multimedia material).

The tutorials may be conducted virtually, following the guidelines of the Universitat de València, via e-mail or videoconference, through the Blackboard Collaborate or Teams platform.

4. Evaluation:

The final evaluation tests will be presential, and only in case of problems caused by the evolution of the pandemic, final evaluation tests will be done online through Aula Virtual of the Universitat de València.
