SUMMARY

The Final Degree Project (TFG) consists of the autonomous development by the student of a project, under the direction of a tutor professor, which may contain an experimental part if the proposed topic so requires. The purpose of carrying out the TFG is for the student to be able to integrate the teachings received during the studies and ensure the acquisition of the skills of the degree.

The selection of the topics by the students will be made following the criteria for ordering UV enrollment among the candidates who meet the specific requirements in their case, as approved in ACGUV 107/2017.

PREVIOUS KNOWLEDGE

Relationship to other subjects of the same degree

There are no specified enrollment restrictions with other subjects of the curriculum.

Other requirements

In order to enroll in the TFG, the student must have passed at least 160 ECTS credits between basic and compulsory.

For the presentation of the TFG it will be required to have passed all the subjects (basic, compulsory and optional), which make up the study plan.

TEACHING METHODOLOGY

The TFG must be prepared individually by each student. The ownership of the intellectual property rights of the TFGs correspond to the student who has done it and the tutor, in co-authorship, in accordance with the provisions of the intellectual property law of 1996 with modifications of 2003, in its articles 7 and 8.

The TFG to be presented by each student will comply with the "Rules for writing and presenting the TFG" available on the center's website (www.uv.es/farmacia).

In the event that the TFG involves the collection and processing of personal data, you must abide by the provisions of the "Protocol for compliance with data protection regulations in the performance of External Internships and End-of-Study Projects" available on the page Center website (www.uv.es/farmacia).

The TFG will be programmed addressing the Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) most related to each topic.

The TFG may be written in any of the official languages of the University or in English.

EVALUATION

Students will have to express their interest in participating in any of the calls offered in the academic year, at least ten calendar days before the date on which the Evaluation Commission convenes, by depositing through the Electronic Office of the University (ENTREU), a pdf file with the complete content of the TFG.

The defense of the TFG will be carried out by the students and will be public. The student body will have a maximum of 15 minutes to present their work and the Commission will debate with them for a maximum of 15 minutes about the work.

The qualification will be the result of the evaluation of the Commission (70%) and the tutor's report (30%). The evaluation will take into consideration: scientific quality, expository clarity (both written and oral) and the ability to debate and defend memory.

The evaluation criteria of the Evaluation Commission and the document for the evaluation of the tutor can be consulted on the website of the Degree, section TFG. The tutor's evaluation document signed digitally must be sent to the Secretary of the Center (maria.m.gonzalez@uv.es) prior to the defense of the work.
