SUMMARY

English version is not available

La asignatura Derechos humanos es una asignatura obligatoria, de carácter cuatrimestral, que se imparte en el tercer curso del Grado en Ciencias políticas y de la Administración. Según el plan de estudios vigente consta de un total de 6 créditos teórico-prácticos.

El de derechos humanos es uno de los conceptos políticos básicos de nuestro tiempo, con proyección jurídico-positiva en los sistemas internos de derechos fundamentales y en las declaraciones y convenios internacionales sobre derechos humanos. Ocupa un lugar central en la teoría y en la práctica política, tanto interna como internacional. La profundización en el sentido y significado de la idea de derechos humanos es condición indispensable para comprender e interpretar el panorama político actual.

El objetivo de la asignatura consiste en que los alumnos comprendan las raíces y el alcance de la protección de los derechos humanos en el ordenamiento jurídico internacional. En consecuencia, la asignatura se centra en analizar la protección de los derechos humanos tanto en el ámbito universal, como regional, con una especial referencia al caso europeo.

1. CONTENTS

All the contents of the subject are maintained, which will be distributed according to the different types of sessions (face-to-face or by synchronous videoconference).

2. VOLUME OF WORK AND TEMPORARY PLANNING OF TEACHING

The activities and workload of the Teaching Guide are maintained. Session planning will be specified at the beginning of the course.

3. TEACHING METHODOLOGY

- Classes will be taught in person or by synchronous videoconference.
- The individual tutorials will preferably be online.
- If the health situation dictates that all teaching must be carried out online, the face-to-face sessions will be replaced by one of the following elements: uploading of materials to the Virtual Classroom, synchronous videoconference or recorded transparencies. For practical activities, interaction with students will be guaranteed through videoconference, forum or chat in a Virtual Classroom. If this were the case, the corresponding adaptations will be communicated through the Virtual Classroom by the teaching team.

FOR VULNERABLE OR AFFECTED STUDENTS

The methodology will be adapted to the following non-contact activities:

- Synchronous video conference classes
- Written teaching material
- Materials posted in Virtual Classroom
- Videoconference tutoring

4. EVALUATION

The criteria of the Teaching Guide regarding the weighting of the evaluation of each type of activity are maintained. For vulnerable or affected students, the grading proportion of the evaluable group activities will be computed in individual activities.

If the health situation requires the final test to be carried out online, said test may be carried out through one of the following modalities, which each teacher will specify in the corresponding annex:

- Individual written test, of a synchronous nature, by means of a questionnaire through the Virtual Classroom.
- Individual written test, of a synchronous nature, through development questions through the Virtual Classroom.
- Oral test by BBC videoconference.

5. BIBLIOGRAPHY

The bibliography provided in the Teaching Guide is maintained. If the health situation forces the closing of libraries, the basic bibliography would be provided through the Virtual Classroom.
