SUMMARY

This course is an introduction to the political system of the European Union, composed by three main sections (institutions, actors and policies), preceded by a brief historical overview of the process of European integration. The contents of this course are part of the process of training in the degree of political science and public administration. Therefore, the analysis of the European political system will use the theoretical and conceptual tools acquired in the subjects of political science at the previous courses. This main approach will be complemented with other complementary perspectives, to provide a multidisciplinary view on the European integration process and its main components.

TEACHING METHODOLOGY

English version is not available

Clases teóricas:

Las clases teóricas se basarán en las exposiciones del profesor. Las explicaciones fomentarán de modo deliberado el análisis crítico de los contenidos, tratando de establecer comparaciones de las ideas originales con situaciones del presente. Para ello se demandará la participación activa e informada de los alumnos, la cual tendrá su reflejo en la calificación final.

Clases prácticas:

En las clases prácticas se analizarán preferentemente textos y materiales referidos a casos y problemas europeos. La dinámica de la clase práctica consistirá en debatir el texto que se haya indicado y analizarlo críticamente de acuerdo con las categorías analíticas aportadas por el profesor. Se efectuarán en clase también trabajos prácticos sobre cuestiones de política europea tratadas en los medios de comunicación.

EVALUATION

Evaluation system.

A. Oral or written test consisting of one or more exams, which may have an objective nature and include theoretical and practical questions and/or practical cases.

B. Continuous assessment of each student, based on regular attendance and active participation in activities developed in class, such as resolution of practical cases or participation in workshops, delivery of papers and/or reports and/or oral presentations about such activities, either individually or in group, taking into consideration the degree of involvement and the effort made by the student in the teachinglearning process and his/her skills and attitude shown during the development of such activities.

ADDENDUM COVID-19

This addendum will only be activated if the health situation requires so and with the prior agreement of the Governing Council

HYBRID TEACHING

If the academic authority determines it, this subject will be adapted to the hybrid teaching model established by the Faculty of Law, through which face-to-face theoretical-practical classes will be taught in discontinuous weeks for the student. To this end, the Secretary of the Faculty will divide the group into as many subgroups as necessary, teaching in the classroom, at the time established for the subject, to one of the subgroups each week in accordance with the calendar established by the Faculty, providing for the others, as a priority, follow-up of the class through synchronous VIDEO CONFERENCE.

The contents, volume of work and evaluation are maintained in the terms initially foreseen in the academic guide.

NON-PRESENTIAL TEACHING

If the academic authority establishes the change in non-classroom teaching, this subject will be taught to all students under the same conditions as those indicated for the non-classroom teaching part of the hybrid system.

The contents, volume of work and evaluation are maintained in the terms initially foreseen in the academic guide.
