EVALUATION

Final written and / or oral tests, consisting of a test, which may be in the form of objective or development type questions, including theoretical-practical issues and / or problems. This test will have a value of 70% of the final grade. To pass the subject it will be necessary to pass this test.

In the final test, the following will be considered as general evaluation criteria:

- Adequacy of the answer to what is asked: concretion and precision
- Writing and spelling

- Terminology and technical precision
- Coherence and internal logic of the basis of the answers

The continuous assessment of each student is based on regular attendance and active participation in the proposed face-to-face activities, such as the completion of practices or participation in workshops, the resolution of questionnaires, the preparation and / or delivery of papers, reports and / or oral presentations on such activities, individually or collectively; all taking into consideration the degree of involvement and effort of the students in the teaching-learning process and the skills and attitudes shown during the development of the mentioned activities. This part will have a value of 30% of the final grade.

In any case, for this 30% of the grade to be taken into consideration, students must pass the final test.

- In the evaluation of the tests and / or activities, in addition to the content, these criteria will also be taken into account:
 - The adequacy of the answer to the question that is asked
 - The writing and spelling
 - Terminological and technical precision
 - The coherence and internal logic of the foundation in the answers.

The continuous assessment activities developed during the course have a recoverable nature, so that at the time of the final test corresponding to the second call or prior to its conclusion, the corresponding recovery activities will be proposed to the students.
