SUMMARY

The Law of Foreigners deals with the rights and freedoms of foreigners in Spain, their entry, stay and departure from the national territory, as well as the sanctioning regime applicable to this area and issues related to the exercise of family reunification or the possibility to work in our country. This subject also deals with some circumstances that could affect the lives of foreigners during their stay in Spain, specifically the possibility of acquiring Spanish nationality and the eventual celebration of a marriage and its future dissolution. Furthermore, the rules derived from the process of European integration are also studied. This phenomenon has caused a greater "internationalization" of our society and a specific regime of circulation within the European Union for European citizens and their families. Finally, this subject will also tackle the particular regime of asylum in Spain.

ADDENDUM COVID-19

This addendum will only be activated if the health situation requires so and with the prior agreement of the Governing Council

PRESENTIAL TEACHING MODEL: No significant changes are foreseen in the teaching methodology, which will be specified at the discretion of each lecturer.

BLENDED TEACHING MODEL: If academic authorities so state, this subject will be adapted to the blended teaching model established by the Faculty of Law, under which students will attend in-person theoretical-practical classes in alternate weeks. To this end, the Secretariat of the Faculty will divide the group into as many subgroups as necessary, and lectures will take place for a subgroup in the classroom at the schedule established for the subject according to the calendar established by the Faculty, whereas the others will attend the class, as a priority, through synchronous VIDEOCONFERENCE. The contents, volume of work and assessment remain in the terms initially foreseen in the academic guide.

NON-PRESENTIAL TEACHING MODEL: If academic authorities declare the change into non-presential teaching, this subject will be taught to all students under the same conditions as those indicated for the distance teaching of the blended system. The contents, volume of work and evaluation remain in the terms initially foreseen in the academic guide.
