TEACHING METHODOLOGY

The Theory sessions work as master classes in which knowledge about concepts, propositions, methodologies and real cases is exposed. The Practices sessions familiarize the student with actors, activities and projects in leisure and tourism oriented by Sustainable Development and provide opportunities for on-site evaluation and resolution of cases individually and collectively.

EVALUATION

The continuous assessment of the activities carried out individually and collectively during the course represents 30% of the final grade and a final examination of the knowledge and skills made available accounts for the remaining 70%. This examination may adopt methodologies consisting of an objective test or test and / or an analysis-resolution of the case, either in whole or in part. The methodological choice for the exam will be announced well in advance.
