SUMMARY

English version is not available

La asignatura optativa semestral “Seguridad Social” se imparte en cuarto curso del Grado en Derecho, en el itinerario Derecho Empresarial.

El contenido de esta asignatura forma parte de las materias asignadas al área de Derecho del Trabajo y de la Seguridad Social. Complementa los contenidos impartidos en otras asignaturas troncales (Derecho del Trabajo I y Derecho del Trabajo II). En estas asignaturas impartidas en segundo y tercer curso del Grado se han delimitado conceptos básicos para la comprensión del Derecho de la Seguridad Social, como son el trabajo por cuenta ajena frente al trabajo autónomo; el empresario laboral como sujeto de derechos, obligaciones y responsabilidades y la problemática que en éste ámbito plantean las relaciones interempresariales; etc.

La Seguridad Social es un instrumento específico protector de las necesidades sociales establecido obligatoriamente por el Estado y cumple la función que el mismo le asigna: garantizar a las personas comprendidas en su campo de aplicación, así como a los familiares y asimilados que tuvieran a su cargo, la protección adecuada frente a las contingencias y en las situaciones contempladas legalmente. El objetivo de esta asignatura es estudiar las medidas concretas que comprende la acción protectora de la Seguridad Social y las técnicas instrumentales para su organización.

La asignatura optativa “Seguridad Social” incluye las siguientes materias: formación histórica del sistema español de Seguridad Social; las fuentes del Derecho de la Seguridad Social, tanto nacionales como de la Unión Europea e internacionales; campo de aplicación y estructura del Sistema (Régimen General, Regímenes Especiales y Sistemas Especiales); Gestión y colaboración en la gestión; actos de encuadramiento; financiación, cotización y recaudación de los recursos de la Seguridad Social; acción protectora (delimitación de las contingencias protegidas) y conjunto de prestaciones del nivel contributivo y del nivel no contributivo; protección complementaria.

ADDENDUM COVID-19

This addendum will only be activated if the health situation requires so and with the prior agreement of the Governing Council

1. Contents

The contents of the course are maintained, however, depending on its nature, it will be distributed among the different types of sessions in which hybrid or on-line teaching is organized.

2. Workload and time planning of teaching

The different activities are maintained, with the hours of dedication in ECTS credits established in the original teaching guide. In the event that it is necessary to resort to hybrid or on-line teaching according to health imperatives, the sessions and activities programmed will be developed, as a general rule, on the dates and times established by the competent academic authority.

3. Teaching methodology

If possible, in accordance with the criteria established by the health and academic authorities, teaching will be carried out in full in accordance with the provisions of the Guide.

If hybrid forms of teaching are required, master classes may be held in the modality of on-line distance teaching, preferably by means of synchronous video conferencing. If the computer tools allow it, the corresponding sessions may be held in the presence of part of the students and with streaming access for the rest.

Physical attendance times of the students, according to the criteria established by the academic authority, will be dedicated to applied activities and collective tutoring. Depending on availability, streaming access will also be allowed for the rest of the students.

If throughout the course the health situation requires all the teaching to be online, depending on the characteristics of the subject, the computer availability of the members of each group and the effective functioning of the computer tools, the master classes must be carried out preferably by means of synchronous BBC videoconferences. If this is not possible, they may be replaced by uploading materials in the Virtual Classroom (VC), or voice-over transparencies. For the applied activities, which will be uploaded through the VC, interaction between teachers and students will be guaranteed, through BBC video conferences or the use of forums or chats within the VC.

In any case, apart from the personalized attention through the VC tool or e-mail, a collective tutoring system will be established, through BBC sessions or chats or forums within the VC.

4. Evaluation

The criteria set out in the teaching guide are fully maintained, both with regard to the weighting between continuous assessment and the final test, and the minimum requirements for scoring on both. The possibility of obtaining the mark for the entire continuous assessment is guaranteed in the event that the student cannot attend the activities in person due to health requirements.

The final evaluation will be held face to face in accordance with the provisions of the teaching guide.

5. Bibliography

The existing bibliography is maintained in the teaching guide. If the health situation implies the closure of the libraries, support material will be provided through the virtual classroom.
