RESUMEN

English Language III is a compulsory second year (first semester) subject that is part of the module English Language and Linguistics and the sub-module English Language in the English Studies degree programme of the Universitat de València. It is also part of the Translation and Interlinguistic Mediation programme and of the English Studies minor in the Modern Languages and Literatures, Catalan Language and Literature, Hispanic Studies, and Classics degree programmes. In the English Studies degree, this subject is related to the series English Language I-VIII in the aforementioned module and also to other subjects in the English Linguistics sub-module such as English Phonology, History of the English Language, English Morphology and Lexis, English Syntax and Second Language Acquisition.

The aim of the course is to develop communicative skills in English (reading comprehension and written expression) up to Level B2+ in multiple contexts.

Additionally, this module aims to provide students with an overview of essential aspects dealing with meaning and communication, meaning at different levels of language, as well as different kinds of meaning: denotative, connotative, social, affective and thematic. Then, literal and figurative meanings and meaning extensions are approached, focusing on phrasal verbs, metaphors, metonymies, as well as synonyms, hyponyms and meronyms, and examples of sense relations. A battery of activities combining a practical, inductive and deductive approach will enable students to become familiar with semantic concepts and meaning phenomena related to the English language.

At the same time, the course aims to promote autonomous learning, self-assessment, and remedial work with the lecturer.

EVALUACIÓN

ASSESSMENT FIRST & SECOND CALLS:

A) Individual final examination that includes a reading test, a use of English test, and a written expression test: 80%

B) Activities carried out during the course: 20%

Total: 100%

To pass the subject students need to get at least 50% as an average of both part A and B. Students must also get 50% in each section of part A.

The mark for these activities (part B) is only counted if the student passes part A. Assessment Criteria Students will need to show that they have grasped the concepts introduced by their lecturer(s). They will also have to demonstrate that they have learnt the lexical, grammatical and functional items to be used in the multiple contexts seen in class. Students will also need to show that they have attained a B2+ competence level and that they have acquired a satisfactory level in the other specific competences described in the learning outcomes (section 5) and in the course contents (section 6).

If a student fails one section of the examination (part A) in the first call, he/she would need to take all the parts again. The mark for the 20% of part B will be carried over to the second call. These activities (part B) can only be done during the course and cannot be handed in for the second call.

Plagiarism will not be tolerated; it is a serious academic offence. Any student who is found to have plagiarised will fail the whole subject. For more information on what plagiarism is and how to avoid it, go to www.uv.es/englishphil/plagiarism.
