RESUMEN

English Language VIII is a compulsory fourth-year (second semester) subject that is part of the module English Language and Linguistics and the sub-module English Language in the English Studies degree programme of the Universitat de València (approved in 2010). This subject is related to the series English Language I-VIII in the aforementioned module and also to other subjects in the English Linguistics sub-module such as English Phonology, History of the English Language, English Morphology and Lexis, English Syntax and Second Language Acquisition.

The aim of the course is to develop communicative skills in English (listening comprehension and oral expression, communicative interaction and mediation) up to Level C2 in multiple contexts. Additionally, students will read materials on Corpus Linguistics and will use Corpus Linguistic tools to improve their learning in specific parts of the subject (idioms and other linguistic expressions, phrasal verbs, register variation, etc.).

At the same time, the course aims to promote autonomous learning, self-assessment, and remedial work with the lecturer.
