SUMMARY

The subject Literature and culture in French (1) aims to provide the fundamental keys to understanding the emergence and subsequent evolution of French expression literatures. The acquisition of socio-political elements will make it possible to set the context in which these literatures will be outsourced. Relevant relations will be established with the movements, works and authors of French literature that have marked its development. Finally, the knowledge and study of the French expression literatures of the 19th and 21st centuries will be a fundamental objective, with the aim of consolidating a methodology of analysis. That is why the teacher will propose activities to consolidate these skills; personal and group work will encourage a dynamic and participatory attitude in class. This participation, as well as regular class attendance will have a value that will be reflected in the proportion indicated below for the exam grade.

PREVIOUS KNOWLEDGERelationship to other subjects of the same degree

There are no specified enrollment restrictions with other subjects of the curriculum.
