TEACHING METHODOLOGY

Being a subject of a theoretical-practical nature will not establish a strict methodological separation between theory and practice, working on the acquisition of grammatical, lexical and cultural competences in a contemporary way.

In the classes the foundations of the Italian language will be explained. They will be developed according to the interactive / communicative didactic model, encouraging the students' conversation with each other and with the teacher, based on specific communication situations.

Different types of exercises and of text will be carried out to consolidate the acquired skills and to deepen the assimilation of the grammatical contents.

The linguistic reflection of the students will be strengthened through the continuous contrast between the Italian and the mother tongue of the students and the other languages studied in the Faculty of Philology.

Classes will use the texts specified in the basic bibliography, as well as additional material, if necessary.

Compulsory readings help students in the acquisition of vocabulary and the structures and modes of expression essential for the mastery of a language, as well as allowing them to approach Italian culture and literature.

EVALUATION

The evaluation shall consist of three parts:

TYPE ON FINAL EVALUATION%

a) Individual written exam	50%
b) Continuous assessment of the work done during the course: activities, attendance and participation in class	30%
c) Oral examination	20%

In order to pass the course as a whole, it is necessary to achieve at least a pass mark (5) in both the written exam and the oral exam. Otherwise, the student will keep the continuous assessment activities until the second exam session.

The activities proposed for the continuous assessment (both face-to-face and non-face-to-face) must be carried out and/or handed in on time and in the correct form.

The written and oral exam will assess knowledge and the different skills: grammar and vocabulary, written comprehension, written expression, oral comprehension and oral expression.

The speaking test will consist of a conversation with the teacher based on the compulsory reading and the contents worked on in class; in any case it will be kept within the level expected at the end of the course (level B1 of the CEFR).

Class attendance is necessary and compulsory. Failure to attend classes, even if duly justified, does not exempt students from completing all the activities and assignments required.

Italian mother tongue students should contact the teacher to agree on the forms of assessment.

All activities, both written and oral, will be carried out in Italian and, for this purpose, the average level of the students will be taken into account, as well as the European reference framework in which the subject is included.

The teacher will not reply to e-mails requesting public information (either from the Teaching Guide or from the degree course).

The teacher will not reply to e-mails that arrive from e-mail addresses outside the UV (i.e. different from the extension "alumni.uv.es") and that are not correctly identified and signed.

Intellectual honesty is vital to an academic community and for the fair evaluation of the student's work. All work submitted in this course must be originally authored by every student. No student shall engage in unauthorized collaboration or make use of ChatGPT or other AI composition software.
