SUMMARY

In increasingly globalized and competitive environments, the figure of the entrepreneur acquires a leading role in the economic and social context of a community. In fact, entrepreneurs are people who, with initiative and innovative capacity, develop activities that carry an unknown risk. In the specific field of business activity, an entrepreneur is the person who, through innovation, the assumption of risks and the detection and exploitation of opportunities, creates a business and makes it more dynamic. Well, with the subject "Entrepreneurship and Business Plan" is intended to instill the entrepreneurial spirit and empower it to cope with greater possibilities of success at the birth and management of new companies. Yet under the perspective of Sustainable Development and 2030 Agenda Goals.

The didactic approach of the subject is eminently practical and the students will be stimulated to get involved in a wide range of exercises and works of a fully applied nature grouped in a great project: the creation of a company.

Theory classes	60,00	100
Study and independent work	90,00	0
TOTAL	150,00

TEACHING METHODOLOGY

Classes of theoretical-practical face-to-face. – The habitual development of the classes will be:

- i. Initially, the classes will be used for the presentation by the faculty of the most important concepts and contents of each topic in order that the student acquires the knowledge related to the subject, enhancing the participation.
- ii. After the first sessions, we will proceed to implement in a specific and practical way the knowledge that the students have acquired in theory classes; for this purpose, the realization of a Business Plan for a Business Project designed by a group of students (no more than 4) will be considered. Adaptation to the SDGs of the 2030 agenda will be strengthened.

Classroom practical classes: face-to-face seminars.-

If there is a possibility, the seminars will be used to attend talks by entrepreneurs from the sector (related to gastronomy) in which the student will be offered a practical and real vision of the problem of the deal; if this is not possible, they will serve to enhance group work and improve oral presentation, through theoretical or practical work that complements the training that is acquired in the classes, and also to perform another series of complementary activities of types varied (case studies, management of scientific literature, discussion of current issues).

Study-Preparation of Classes and Exams.-

Hours of autonomous work destined to the reading and preparation of the classes, preparation of exams and of the work to expose in seminars.

EVALUATION

The evaluation of the learning will be done in TWO WAYS: through the performance of an exam on the official date established and by the continuous evaluation system.

The exam will represent 30% of the final grade and the evaluation will continue the remaining 70%. To pass the subject you must obtain at least 5 points out of 10 in the exam in first call and also pass the continuous evaluation; both parts will be recoverable in the second call

The continuous evaluation is composed of (the details will be explained in the first opening session):

- Making a Business Plan for a business creation project; based on the achievement of several MILESTONES:

H.1. Definition and competitive justification of the idea and fixing of differential elements.

H.2. Analysis of the Environment: D.A.F.O. and C.A.M.E.

H.3. Development of the Business Plan:

- Strategic quantification: Marketing - Operations - Econom.Financ
- Organization planning and commissioning

H.4. Final Project Presentation (maximum 10 min.)

The continuous evaluation will be passed when each one of the indicated Milestones is passed individually and alone. That is, Milestone after Milestone will be approved sequentially; being able to the student - case of not surpassing one of them - to do it in the following evaluation interval.

All the final works (executive summary) submitted must have a cover page where the basic data of the work is collected and will be evaluated according to three criteria:

- Quality, coherence and adequacy to SDGs of the project .
- Analysis and development of the PN.
- Presentation.

The GLOBAL and FINAL work should not have an extension of between 10 and 25 pages, One-sided, Times New Roman 11, 1.5 Line Spacing
