SUMMARY

It is necessary to start to justify the introduction of the Valencian balloon in the formation of future graduates in the Degree in Physical Activity and Sports Sciences from a threefold point. Firstly there is a social demand, in fact there are few people who have specific training in the ball. Secondly, there is a legislative obligation in the curriculum of the area of secondary education. The Valencian ball is explicitly mentioned as content and evaluation criteria in each and every one of the courses of ESO and the Baccalaureate. And to end it, there is also a great concern to properly educate the children who want to get into this activity in an orderly and systematic way, as well as in other sports.

Having said all this, we will explain that from the general perspective of traditional and popular games, in this subject we will focus on the autochthonous sport of the Valencians trying on the one hand to transmit the educational values and on the other hand trying to experience the great range of modalities that They can greatly enrich our students.

In relation to the inherent values of the ball and our culture, we will emphasize in our students aspects such as that in ball the truth must always be said, that it is necessary to listen to the advice of the elderly, that it is necessary to respect the public, who do not We can discuss the judges' decisions, we must congratulate the adversaries they have won, that it is appropriate to agree norms to make the game more equal or that we can give the 15 to the opponents.

Regarding the ball game as a physical activity, it should be noted that the great diversity of modalities is a symbol of the geographical particularities that have been developed, of the great variety of specific motor skills involved or of the social importance of the game as The way of occupying the free time of our ancestors.

The progression that will continue in the contents of the sessions will be based on the following order:

- Contact in the mobile and overcoming prejudices.

- Production of protections.

- Installation at the brush.

- Make play and beats.

- Game to Stripes.

- Split channel modes.

- Sociological aspects.

- Organization of an internal tournament.

- Game in its natural place: the street.

- Game in a center at specific facilities.

- Traditional and Popular Games and Sports.

- The ball game as an inclusion tool.

- Teacher's teaching options.
