TEACHING METHODOLOGY

Master classes

Working groups and cooperative tasks

Seminars

The course proposes a doble structure: during classes there will be offered text models that were already translated in order to describe and analyse them; the autonomous work will consist in developing those strategies in the projects described below

EVALUATION

Assessment breakdown for the first and second calls:

Literary translation

- assignments submitted for each session (30%).
- active participation (20%).

Audiovisual translation

- Final test: a commentary of an audiovisual text with a view to its dubbing and subtitling (50%).

Marks achieved in each assessment activity will be carried over to the second call.
