EVALUATION

According to what is stated in the title verification report, the evaluation system to be used in the subject combines two methods:

- Application of scales of observation and recording the attitudes of students in the development of classes. Participation and involvement in the Master's activities.
- Evaluation of the individual and / or group work of the students.

FIRST CALL

The weight of each of the two assessment methods is as follows:

- Application of scales of observation and recording the attitudes of students in the development of classes. Participation and involvement in the Master's activities (35% of the final grade).
- Evaluation of the individual and / or group work of the students (65% of the final grade).

It is not necessary to have a minimum score in either of the two parts, to proceed to add the score obtained in each of them and obtain the final grade.

SECOND CALL

The first part of the evaluation, that is to say, the "Application of scales of observation and registration of the attitudes of the students in the development of the classes. Participation and involvement in the activities of the Master ", is not recoverable, but the grade obtained in first call is maintained. (35% of the final grade)

The second part "Evaluation of the individual and / or group work of the students" would be recoverable from new individual and group tasks different to those made and already corrected in the first call. (65% of the final grade).

It is not necessary to have a minimum score in either of the two parts, to proceed to add the score obtained in each of them and obtain the final grade.
